

$89 plus tax

INCLUDES:

Deluxe motor coach, entry fees to the Cranberry Festival, Lighthouse, and Museum, step-on-guide at fields, bottled water, snacks, and on-board guide (Plus we always surprise our guests with a small gift!)

This is a charming, small-town festival, with many booths outside and inside the local Community Hall in Grayland

- Handmade jewelry
- Native American weaved baskets and blankets
- Wind chimes
- Jellies and jams
- Cranberry sauces
- Cranberry wine

We'll visit the Cranberry fields, and then we're off to Westport for lunch, with time to visit the historical Maritime museum, the town, or check out the jetty.

Then we'll stop at Washington's tallest lighthouse, with 135 steps to the top for those so inclined. The resident guide will share the history of this beautiful lighthouse. For those who do not wish to climb to the top, we'll split up and hit the ocean beach!
