PRESENTS

DUNGENESS CRAB and Seafood Festival October 14, 2012

- ◆ If you like Dungeness crab, this festival is one you should visit!
- ◆ Port Angeles has done a great job of assembling crafts booths on the pier, with just the right balance of crafts, art, and novelties booths.
- ◆ There's a crab tank for the kids, where they use a fishing pole to try to catch (ok, snag is more like it!) a crab. Loads of fun to watch!
- ◆ The food vendors are inside a humongous tent, with plenty of tables to feast or dine as you desire. And, all crab for this feast is harvested no more than 1 day before serving, it's as fresh as it gets!
- ◆ Try some crab cakes or crab cocktail, or go for a whole crab, which comes with corn on the cob and coleslaw. There are other food choices, like fish tacos, salads, desserts, and more. Beer and wine too.
- ◆ The drive is beautiful, with a 30 minute ferry ride crossing Puget Sound, then a drive along the North side of the Olympic Mountains along the Strait of Juan de Fuca.
- ◆ Upon arrival we drop you right at the pier so you can get right to it! You'll have 3 hours to do as you please, whether it be dining, or shopping
- ◆ Departs Seattle area at 9:00am and returns 5:45pm.
- ◆ Tour includes: Transportation and ferry fees, on-board guide, snacks, bottled water, a free raffle for a whole crab, and a fun day!
