Puget Sound Historical Military Forts November 3, 2012

We cover a lot of ground (and water!) as we cross Puget Sound via 3 ferries and a floating bridge on our way to see some of the Sound's unique history.

- ◆ Explore Puget Sound and see it from a whole new perspective
- ◆ You'll visit and walk through all three of the Sound's historic military forts, constructed to protect the Sound, The Naval Base in Bremerton, and the major cities of Everett, Seattle, and Tacoma.
- ◆ Take in the lighthouses along the way, including Admiralty Head, Point Wilson, Alki Point, and Marrowstone Island
- ◆ Watch for Eagles, Hawks, Great Blue Heron, Raccoons, Deer, and other native birds and animals in their natural habitat
- ◆ Drive across one of the 5 longest floating bridges in the world, the only floating bridge over a salt water basin
- ◆ Visit historical Port Townsend with its two marinas and beautiful Victorian Homes
- ◆ See where parts of An Officer and a Gentleman was filmed
- ◆ And more!
