Mushroom Festival

At the Edge of the Rain Forest
Quinault, WA

October 27 & 28, 2012

Now we're talking Pacific Northwest! This autumn weekend is sure to please regional locals as well as visitors with the beautiful fall colors, a visit to the Olympic Peninsula, and some mushroom delights! We begin the journey from Seattle and arrive at the Lake Quinault Lodge in time to check in and catch the first presentation; Introduction to Mushroom Collecting. The itinerary for the rest of the day is jam-packed with presentations and information about mushroom identity, raising mushrooms, and finally the field trip to seek out the delectable fungi.

The Lake Quinault Lodge is a rustic and yet grand historic Lodge at the edge of the Olympic Peninsula's Temperate Rain Forest, and is a beautiful escape from your daily routine. The lobby is welcoming and relaxing and just steps away from beautiful Lake Quinault. The remainder of the day and evening are yours to visit the mushroom events or simply relax and dine at your discretion. Dinner reservations are at the popular Forest Resort Restaurant nearby. Sunday we'll enjoy a peaceful morning, and those who wish, may attend the final mushroom presentation. Then we're off, back to civilization, but with great Northwest memories and some new culinary expertise.

Departure time from Seattle Saturday 6:00AM, returning Sunday 3:15PM.
